MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Security Clearance for Jean Gordon, Administrative Assistant to Representative Charles Gubser

1. In followup to the request of Representative Charles Gubser (R., Calif.) of 29 May for "Secret" security clearance for his Administrative Assistant, Miss Jean Gordon, I learned from [redacted] Special Security Center, Office of Security, that current processing of Agency name checks is taking some 40 days on the average even on expedite processing. In consequence I called [redacted] Chief, Personnel Security Division, and in his absence talked to [redacted] [redacted] thanked me for the call and advised that he would check into the matter and be back in touch during the afternoon.

2. In what seemed only a matter of minutes he called back and advised that an interim "Secret" security clearance is being granted for Miss Jean Gordon by the Office of Security effective this date.

3. [redacted] requested that in the future requests for security clearances be processed through the Personnel Security Division and that whatever security action as may be necessary to expedite security determination will be taken on our behalf.
